GIRL SCOUTS WILL HAVE COOKIE SALE

The Girl Scout Cookie Sale in Appomattox will begin on March 31st and end on April 14th. Starting on March 24th, Girl Scouts will be permitted to take orders. The three kinds of cookies being sold this year are, chocolate and vanilla creme filled, chocolate mint and peanut butter. The cost per box is 45 cents. A portion of the cookie profits is retained by the troop to assist them in their various projects, supplies, equipment, etc. Many times the money is used to finance a troop trip or camping expedition. The remaining profit is used by the Central Virginia Council of Girl Scouts, Inc., to maintain Camp Sacajawea, which is supported entirely by cookie money. All Girl Scouts in this area are given the opportunity to use the camp. Appomattox Troop No. 41 had a wonderful 3 days at Camp Sacajawea last year under the leadership of Mrs. J. M. McAden and Mrs. Lewis McDearmon.

You can do your part toward the support of the Girl Scout Camping Program by your purchase of Girl Scout Cookies.
